A brighter outlook for business.

Treetop Trek swings into The Mintworks

A multi award winning company providing treetop adventures in Cumbria, Manchester and Yorkshire has launched itself into bigger offices at The Mintworks Kendal Enterprise Centre.

Treetop Trek Limited has enjoyed huge success offering hundreds of thousands of adventurers of all ages the chance to safely swing, climb, balance and fly through an ancient British woodland canopy.

“We needed a central location convenient for existing staff, many of whom travel by bike, and wanted to remain in South Lakeland close to our flagship Treetop activities at Brockhole on the Windermere shore” said managing Director Mike Turner.

Sales Manager Vicky Blanco explains: “We had outgrown our office space and needed to relocate the sales and booking operation. The SLDC Economic Development Unit which runs The Mintworks were really helpful, and the open plan space can comfortably accommodate a dozen people. The facilities are excellent, the location is handy for the motorway, and flexible access means we can work late if necessary.”
